

Would you like to become a Master Seed Saver @BCPL? Master Seed Savers will be given the opportunity to attend a special program, view, and check out seeds on February 11th 2020, before the seed library officially opens on March 1st. And, go home with a little seed swag to boot!

Join our club! Here are the requirements for becoming a Master Seed Saver:

1) Attend at least one seed saving program offered at the library:

March 1, 2019 10 AM John Coykendall - Seed Library Grand Opening

August 28, 2019 2 PM "Seed Saving 101" With Ben Cohen

January 14, 2020 7 PM "Planning For Seed Saving Success"

2) Read at least one of these books on seed saving:

The complete guide to saving seeds : 322 vegetables, herbs, flowers, fruits, trees, and shrubs / Robert Gough and Cheryl Moore-Gough

The manual of seed saving : harvesting, storing, and sowing techniques for vegetables, herbs, and fruits / Andrea Heisteringer ; Arche Noah, Pro Specie Rara ; translated by Ian Miller

Seed to seed : seed saving and growing techniques for vegetable gardeners / by Suzanne Ashworth ; edited by Kent Whealy ; photography by David Cavagnaro

Seedswap : the gardener's guide to saving and swapping seeds / Josie Jeffery

Starting & saving seeds : grow the perfect vegetables, fruits, herbs and flowers for your garden / Julie Thompson-Adolf

3) Return enough seeds for at least 10 packs to be put into our Seed Library by January 31st, 2020. These seeds must be open-pollinated, non-GMO, non-hybrid seeds that have been purchased, or from plants that you have grown, and observed correct protocols to ensure true seed.
