The library listens and reflects the needs, desires, and dreams of our community. The collections, services, and resources are selected to help you in the realizations of those dreams. It has been a wonderful 100 years and we look forward to the adventures that await us.

Join us on October 24th at 4 PM to celebrate 100 years of library service to Blount County citizens and visitors.

Cormac McCarthy Literary Festival

November 1-3

Join us for this three-day festival featuring national, regional and local authors and scholars. Highlighted authors include...

- Frank X. Walker
- Susan Zurenda
- Ron Rash
- Sharyn McCrumb
- Amy Greene

Our festival is named in honor of Cormac McCarthy to highlight his time in Blount County and his contribution to the literary world.

Enjoy live Appalachian arts demonstrations, musical performances and fun activities for the whole family and engage with East Tennessee’s unique literary history.

Library Closures
